An Invitation to Partner

The God Party - Family Reunion is a faith-centered live experience created to bring people together across churches, neighborhoods, generations, and backgrounds for an evening of worship, encouragement, friendly competition, and genuine family connection.

On January 29, 2027, we will gather at Stage AE in Pittsburgh for a high-energy, welcoming experience featuring live worship, speakers, Bible trivia, gospel karaoke, a family challenge, interactive moments, and a call to Jesus.

We are inviting businesses, churches, organizations, and community partners to help us create an unforgettable experience while connecting their brand with an audience centered on faith, family, community, and purpose.

In-Kind Partnership Opportunities

The God Party welcomes select in-kind partnerships from businesses and organizations interested in supporting the event through products and professional services such as gift cards, contest prizes, printing and signage, merchandise or apparel, accommodations, transportation, photography or videography, promotional services, approved decor or event materials, and other event needs.

Sponsor recognition may be provided based on the fair market value and nature of the contribution. In-kind benefits and recognition will be confirmed in advance so each partnership is clear and mutually beneficial.

Venue Requirements: All in-kind products, services, activations, and event materials are subject to venue requirements and prior approval, where applicable. Outside food and beverages are not accepted as in-kind sponsorship items.

Interested in providing an in-kind sponsorship? Contact the Sponsorship Team to discuss current event needs and available recognition opportunities.

Custom Partnerships

Have a partnership idea that does not fit one of the packages above? We welcome conversations about customized activations and opportunities that create value for both the sponsor and the guest experience.

Reserve Your Partnership

We want every sponsor represented with care and enough production time to prepare professional print and digital materials.

Sponsorship Commitment Deadline

Commit by December 15, 2026 for guaranteed inclusion in applicable printed materials, event signage, digital promotions, and on-screen recognition. Sponsorship opportunities may remain available after this date; however, inclusion in all promotional materials cannot be guaranteed.

How to Get Started

Contact the Sponsorship Team to reserve a sponsorship opportunity. Upon confirmation, sponsors will receive a sponsorship agreement and invoice/payment instructions. Logo files, advertising assets, and any required production materials will be requested after the sponsorship is confirmed.

Sponsorship Notice

The God Party LLC is a for-profit limited liability company. Sponsorship payments and in-kind contributions are not charitable contributions. Sponsors should consult their tax professional regarding the treatment of sponsorship, advertising, products, or services provided to the event.
